Once your account is credited, order your meals and I will keep you updated on your account balance.

I will alert you when your credits are almost expired. You can add another prepayment at that time. Or not. No pressure, no automatic renewal, no hassle, no worries. Just yummy food and friendly service.

*payments must be made with cash, check or credit card only. PayPal payments do not qualify.

Thank you for allowing us to make your life easier, healthier and tastier.

I look forward to feeding you,
